Association for Canadian Studies in Australia and New Zealand

Dear Colleagues,

The Association for Canadian Studies in Australia and New Zealand (ACSANZ) is pleased to announce its 2006 Conference, to be held at the University of Otago in Dunedin New Zealand from 11-13 April. ACSANZ is a multidisciplinary association with membership across the humanities and the social sciences. We always welcome new members.

Our 2006 ACSANZ Conference is entitled, "Globalization, Culture, Mobility, and Migration". This multidisciplinary conference will include sessions on indigenous rights in Australia, New Zealand and Canada, on the impact of globalisation and the "war on terror" (including the Iraq war), and on Bills of Rights in these countries. The globalization of literature, popular culture and movies will also be featured. Additionally, a special session will be held on "mobility and migration".

The convenor is Dr David Macdonald of the University of Otago, School of Political Science.
